SUBJECT

Unidentified Flying Object Investigation

TO Commander, 4602d AISS

FROM Flt 3-B, 4602d AISS

DATE 27 Aug 56 COMMENT NO. 1
Capt Matsue/70236

1. The attached information pertaining to an Unidentified Flying Object Investigation is submitted as requested.

2. The initial report, TWX INT-8-43, Comdr 662d ACWRON, Brookfield AF Sta, Ohio indicated that S/Sgt Strates Couleourianes observed the UFOB as well as Dr. and Mrs. [REDACTED]. However, after contacting Sgt Couleourianes, it was found that he was the NCO on duty at the time the report was received at the Canton GOC Center, Ohio. He stated that he did not see the object, and that he only forwarded the report from the Doctor to the 662d ACWRON.

3. Telephone calls to ATIC for astronomical conditions and balloon track information showed no possibility for a sighting within the UFOB area.

4. Telephone calls to the 662d ACWRON and the Canton GOC Center for information pertaining to aircraft and other known objects revealed no tracks or flight plans for the area at the time of sighting.

5. ATIC Form 164 was completed by Dr. and Mrs. [REDACTED] and forwarded to this unit as requested. This information is inclosed with this DF.

6. T/Sgt Stone conducted the investigation, via phone and mail. No personal contact was made.

JON T MATSUO

Capt., USAF

"OIC, Flt 3-B"

Evaluation is "unknown"
However, general tone of 164's indicate a slight possibility of a description of a known phenomenon.
