It is the opinion of this headquarters that this sighting was possibly generated by jet aircraft. The description of the object and the location of the sighting (directly under the flight paths of both Fort Worth and Dallas) substantiate the possible aircraft evaluation. |                                                    |                                    |
