Her aunt called about 21:00 and said look outside and see the object (light). Watched it about one hour. First saw it South of home. Object moved Northwards a little, then to the left (East), then to the right (West), then back to its original position - (then repeated these movements 15 or 20 times. WH10 tower was between her and the light. All positions of the light "in elevation" were between the top and second lights on the WH10 tower. Object then went straight West and finally disappeared, but did not go below the horizon.
