ATIC Conclusions:
A very skimpy report, more "nones" (?) than specific data - but everything points to the obj. being a jet aircraft. Checks show no UFO rpts from Radar, GOC, a/c, others in the area.

ATIC Conclusions: Similar to a number of reports since the advent of latest high speed a/c (F-100 series).

At first glance appears to be a meteor. However, time-in-sight, if correct rules this out.

Note – jet aircraft in the area.

They do resemble meteorites at night, at dark – when at high altitudes –.
