SUMMARY (Enter concise summary of report. Give significance in final one-sentence paragraph. List inclosures at lower left. Begin text of report on AF Form 118a.) I. NARRATIVE: On 6 December 1957, this organization received information from Hqs. 8th Naval District, New Orleans, La., to the effect that they were in possession of an unidentified rocket type object that penetrated the house of a Mr. [REDACTED] Street, New Orleans, La. A joint investigation in New Orleans by this office and 8th Naval District personnel, revealed that the object was a ground-type rocket-propelled red star parachute flare signal, probably fired by non-military personnel. This information was passed to Mr. [REDACTED] and the New Orleans City Police, who have investigative jurisdiction in this civil disturbance. The physical item was forwarded on 10 December 1957 to Comdr., ATIC, W-PAFB, Ohio, ATTN: AFCIN 4B4.
