St. Louis

Dear Sir,
On Jan 25, 1911 at 6:15 PM Eating Mrs. M. (age 60) and son (age 11) Jan. 11 U.F.L.

They described it as being a big black wheel rolling through the city.

It was about 100 ft. long 10 ft. high and was sitting at the corner of 1st and 1st St.
at the corner.

There was no sign of any one near the corner at the time.

I am a ~~high~~ (for 1911)
and will be in the city to find out more.

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

Your recent letter to the Air Technical Intelligence Center has been referred to this office for reply.

The information furnished in your letter is not detailed enough for us to make any conclusion as to what was seen by your mother and son on September 25, 1961. So that we may have more detailed information, I am enclosing two questionnaires for your mother and son to complete. Please forward them in the enclosed pre-addressed envelopes. No stamps will be necessary.

Your interest in this matter is appreciated.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM T. COLEMAN, JR.
