

PROJECT 10073 RECORD

|                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|---------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| DATE - TIME GROUP21 August 65 01/0430Z  | 2. LOCATIONAri Visual over Nevada.Fallon NAAS, Winnemucca AFS, Tonopah NPS, Nevada                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| SOURCEMilitary                          | 10. CONCLUSIONVisual: Astro (Capella).Radar: Weather Phenomena.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| NUMBER OF OBJECTSOne visual             | Visual observation to NE, Radar returns to NW.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| LENGTH OF OBSERVATION2 hours 15 minutes | 11. BRIEF SUMMARY AND ANALYSIS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| TYPE OF OBSERVATIONVisual, G1 RADAR     | Oblong object green on one end red on the other white center. Ground observers estimate 15 deg elevation sextant 20 deg elevation on azimuth of 050 deg. Air Visual of this object made also. Tonopah Nevada tracked object at 15,000 ft distance 150 miles azimuth 340 degrees. Visual object made stops starts and climbs. Disappeared by fading. Air visual from F-102, G1 Radar from Tonopah and Winnemucca AFS. Ground sightings from Fallon NAS. |
| COURSEStationary, erratic               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| PHOTOS0 Yes1 No                     | Winnemucca suggested that cause of radar returns might be due to Weather.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| PHYSICAL EVIDENCE0 Yes1 No          | Visual sighting characteristic of Astro Body. CAPPELLA in the approximate position reported.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |