1. The first part of the text discusses the importance of the "National Day" and the role of the government in organizing the celebration. It mentions that the government has decided to hold a large-scale event in the capital city, which will include various cultural performances, sports activities, and a grand parade. The text also highlights the significance of the day for the citizens, as it is a time to reflect on the country's history and achievements.

2. The second part of the text describes the preparations for the event. It mentions that the government has allocated a large budget for the celebration, and that various departments are working together to ensure that everything runs smoothly. The text also mentions that the event will be broadcasted live on television, so that citizens can watch it from the comfort of their homes.

3. The third part of the text discusses the expected attendance at the event. It mentions that thousands of people are expected to participate in the parade, and that millions more are expected to watch the event on television. The text also mentions that the event will be a great opportunity for citizens to show their patriotism and pride in their country.

4. The fourth part of the text discusses the security measures that will be in place for the event. It mentions that the government has deployed a large number of police officers and security forces to ensure that the event is held without any incidents. The text also mentions that the event will be held in a secure area, and that access will be restricted to authorized personnel only.

5. The fifth part of the text discusses the expected impact of the event. It mentions that the event is expected to boost the national spirit and unity of the citizens. It also mentions that the event will be a great opportunity for the government to showcase the country's progress and achievements to the world.
